

LODGE NOTES

The Initiatory Degree was conferred at the meeting of Bourbon Lodge L. O. O. F. Monday night.

The Second Rank was conferred on several candidates at the regular meeting of Rathbone Lodge, Knights of Pythias, last night.

The following officers were elected at the closing session of the Grand Lodge Masons, in Louisville: E. E. Nelson, Williamsburg, Grand Master; A. E. Orton, Dawson Springs, Deputy Grand Master; H. M. Grundy, Springfield, Grand Senior Warden; G. Allison Holland, Lexington, Grand Junior Warden; John H. Leathers, Louisville, Grand Treasurer; Fred W. Hardwick, Louisville, Grand Secretary.

Mr. Holland, who is Chairman of the Million Dollar Committee in charge of the campaign to finance the new Masonic Widows' and Orphans' Home, will become Grand Master in three years.

TUBERCULIN TEST APPLIED TO COWS

According to Dr. E. M. Stemmler, Federal veterinary surgeon, who is stationed in Lexington, and who has active supervision of the work, approximately seventy-five per cent. of the dairy cows of this vicinity have been given the tuberculin test.

Dr. Stemmler says that in Bourbon county the tuberculin test has been made compulsory, and that the Bourbon county veterinarians are at work making a thorough test of dairy cattle. During the past week he was called to Bourbon and made a number of tests here by way of assisting the farmers of the county who supply the Lexington market with milk properly tested.

GOOD THINGS COMING TO LOCAL MOVIE HOUSES

Special double program at the Alamo Friday, matinee and night. Betty Compson will be presented in her latest Goldwin production, "Al-ways The Woman." A stirring drama of the desert sands, and desert love. It is a 98 per cent picture, and one you will doubtless enjoy.

Fred Stone, the eminent Western actor, will be seen in one of his thrill pictures, "The Duke of Chimney Butte," a real Western story, with plenty of punch and realism. You'll like this one.

Saturday at the Alamo, both matinee and night, Tom Mix will appear in "Sky High," a William Fox production, and a thrilling story of the Grand Canyon country. In this picture Tom Mix out-mixes Mix! Never before did Mix ever perform such daring feats. It's a real thriller. If you miss it you'll be sorry.

At St. John will demonstrate his cleverness as a comedian in his new Fox Sunshine comedy, "Straight From the Farm." A Pathe News Weekly will conclude the program.

Monday Raymond Hitchcock, the popular favorite of the stage, comes to the Alamo and Grand in "The Beauty Shop," a Paramount Cosmopolitan production, full of ginger, beauty, pep and the thing that makes the world go round, love.

Harry Myers in "Robinson Crusoe," episode No. 6, will be more interesting than any of the previous episodes, and then, too, there is the Pathe Review, which is both educational and entertaining. It is a well-balanced program and should please the most exacting person.

R. G. M. Ross has been in Richmond making preliminary arrangements for the organization of a Ku Klux Klan. Mr. Ross is the organizer for Kentucky. He says he has established chapters of the Klan in Ashland, Cynthia, Carlisle, Paris, Danville, Frankfort, Falmouth, Nicholasville, Mt. Olivet, Shelbyville and Winchester. He plans to establish chapters in Berea and Irvine in the near future. He named several towns in the Eastern end of the State that have made applications for chapters.

RAINS BENEFIT CROPS

Reports from all over the county indicate that the recent rains have been general, and have been of great benefit to crops and pastures. Most of the corn crop has been cut and many farmers are through sowing their grain. The tobacco is said to be curing up nicely in the barns. Farmers are generally well pleased with prospects for the fall.

RARE OLD BOOKS

Courtland Leer sometime ago in rummaging around among the effects of his father, the late Charles Carroll Leer, found a copy of the autobiography of Barton W. Stone, and at once came to the conclusion that he had the only copy in existence. Since then another copy has been found in the Public Library at Georgetown.

And now still another copy of the same work, printed in Cincinnati, by J. U. and U. B. James, in 1846, has been found, this time in the possession of Mr. Oscar Miller, of Paris. Mr. Miller brought the old book to THE NEWS office a few days ago, and also had with him a copy of "The History of Baptism," written by Alexander Campbell, and published in Cincinnati, in 1851. Both these old books were the property of Mr. Miller's father, John A. Miller, of Millersburg, and bear his signature on the fly leaf.

The old books are clear and neatly printed, and are in a splendid state of preservation. They are printed in what was formerly called "brevier" type, now known to the fraternity as "eight-point," and are fine examples of the printer's art of that time.
